

- Lee Ann is an experienced occupational therapist, who holds a Master degree in Education and a Master degree in Occupational Therapy.
- She worked with kiddos with a wide variety of skills and abilities from infancy through adulthood.
- She has been practiced in a wide variety of settings supporting children and their families, including pediatric rehabilitation, outpatient clinics, and within the school setting.
- Lee Ann is highly versed in DIR Model, Sensory Integration, Reflex Integration, Therapeutic Listening, and Interactive Metronome.
- She truly enjoys and finds great meaning in supporting a child's growth and developing collaborative relationships with families!